

Australian Society and the Westminster System

Maintaining the rule of law supports democratic rights for all Australian citizens

Government

- Guided by the Australian Constitution
- Parliament makes the law through elected representatives of the people
- Checks and balances restrain arbitrary authority

Law Enforcement

- Police work to protect and serve communities
- The Judiciary administers justice according to the law

Communities

Citizens responsibly engage in society by knowing, understanding, and abiding by the laws

EVERYONE MUST FOLLOW THE LAW