

The Eureka Rebellion

Chatterbox

REBELLION	Where is Eureka? Eureka is a suburb in the City of Ballarat, Victoria AUSTRALIA	What is DEMOCRACY? A system where the people decide who they want to govern them	EQUALITY
When did the Eureka Rebellion occur? December 3 1854			What did the government do? It introduced unfair mining licences and taxes, then brutally enforced the law!
	A miner called Peter Lalor	They stood up to oppressive treatment and arbitrary rule by the authorities	What did the gold miners do? They stood up to oppressive treatment and arbitrary rule by the authorities
Who lead the rebellion?	A democratic idea where laws are administered justly and fairly	For the GOLD RUSH!	LIBERTY
DEMOCRACY	What is the rule of law?	Why were the miners at Eureka?

Use the CHATTERBOX to test your family and friends to find out what they know about the Eureka Rebellion!

Players will take five turns to quiz each other on their knowledge of the Eureka Rebellion.

1. Cut out the large square and place the paper face down on the table.
2. Fold in half 4 times, including diagonally and open after each fold. Fold on the lines as accurately as possible and pinch each fold as you go to help your chatterbox come together.
3. Open out your piece of paper and place face down. Fold all corners to the centre of the page making sure all points meet in the centre, again pinching each fold.
4. Turn your chatterbox over and fold the new corners into the centre.
5. Fold your paper in half vertically and then horizontally, then insert your fingers under the tabs and lift them out.
6. Finally, you will need to make a cut between each wquestion so only one answer is revealed.

