In this article, you will also find a video link to watch. This can help support your understanding about how an old piece of paper written more than 800 years ago, became one of the most important documents in human history.

Complete the activity tasks that accompanies the story of King John.

To further study the history of Magna Carta, follow this link and complete the activities: The Magna Carta

Create a storyboard of how King John and his barons came to sign The Great Charter in 1215, which later led to Magna Carta.

There are three templates for you to choose from to help you create your storyboard:
